17 Daytime Emmy® Award Honors for Hub Network, Most Ever After Only 2-1/2 Years on Air

Hub Network Is Second Most Recognized Kids Network Behind Only Nickelodeon

For the First Time Ever, Hub Network Receives Three Top Programming Nominations for "The Aquabats! Super Show!," "R.L. Stine's The Haunting Hour: The Series" and "Dan Vs."

"Transformers Prime" Receives Three Early Wins

LOS ANGELES — Hub Network, a destination for kids and their families, received 17 Daytime Emmy® Award honors, the most ever in its two-and-half year history, with 14 nominations and three early wins, as announced today by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS). Hub Network received the second most nominations of any kids network, behind only Nickelodeon.

"Hub Network is home to distinctive, quality programming and we are elated that the members of the Academy have honored us every year since we launched by recognizing our series with multiple Daytime Emmy® Award nominations and wins," said Margaret Loesch, President & CEO, Hub Network. "These honors are a testament to the world-class work performed by everyone who works on these programs."

For the first-time ever, Hub Network received three top programming nominations, including two for Outstanding Children's Series for "The Aquabats! Super Show!" (FremantleMedia Enterprises and The Magic Store) and "R.L. Stine's The Haunting Hour: The Series" (Front Street Pictures in association with The Hatchery, LLC.), as well as one for Outstanding Special Class Animated Program for "Dan Vs." (Film Roman Inc., a Starz Media Company, in association with The Hatchery, LLC.).

Additionally, Hub Network was honored with three early wins for "Transformers Prime," which is produced by Hasbro Studios. "Transformers Prime" was recognized for Outstanding Individual Achievement in Animation for Character Animation, Background Design, and Storyboard. These wins bring Hub Network's grand total of Daytime Emmy® wins to eight after just three seasons of eligibility.
